

German Delegation to Kenya on Labour Mobility

14. - 18. September 2026, Nairobi, Kenya

The Delegation of German Industry and Commerce for Eastern Africa, AHK in cooperation with The State Department for Diaspora Affairs, SDDA and IHK Nürnberg, will host a German Delegation for a four-day information and networking event. The event is designed to support German companies, recruiting organizations and other German Multipliers in the Labour Mobility space in identifying and understanding available talent in Kenya.

The event will comprise one conference day focused on information exchange, labour market insights, and stakeholder dialogue, followed by three days dedicated to site visits and structured labour mobility centered interactions. It will bring together key stakeholders from Kenya and Germany—including employers, recruiters, training institutions, professionals, and students—to foster engagement, build relationships, and explore skills availability and qualification pathways.

The event is a platform for informed engagement, market orientation, and responsible talent identification in line with ethical and internationally recognized recruitment principles

Benefits for the Participants:

- Direct Engagement with Trusted Stakeholders – interact with Kenyan training institutions, public authorities, and ecosystem partners, building trust and long-term cooperation channels.
- On-Site Understanding Through Visits – Companies can meet, assess, and engage with qualified, German language - certified candidates in real time.
- Support for Ethical and Responsible Recruitment– The event is grounded in internationally recognized ethical recruitment principles.
- In-Depth Market and Skills Insights– provision of structured insights into Kenya’s training systems, qualification frameworks, and skills.
